

Director Steve Krulevitz World Class Credentials

For over a decade, Steve competed on the Professional Grand Prix Tennis Circuit where he ranked top 50 in the world. His opponents spanned from Laver to Lendl. As a Maryland Junior, Steve captured 4 MSA Singles Titles and with a National ranking of 7th was elected to the US Junior Davis Cup Team. An All American at UCLA, Steve received a Bachelor of Science Degree in Kinesiology.

Born and raised in Baltimore, with dual citizenship, Steve played #1 for Israel's Davis Cup Team and has coached that Davis Cup Team as well. He competed on the prestigious 35 and over tour and has been inducted into the Mid-Atlantic Tennis Hall of Fame.

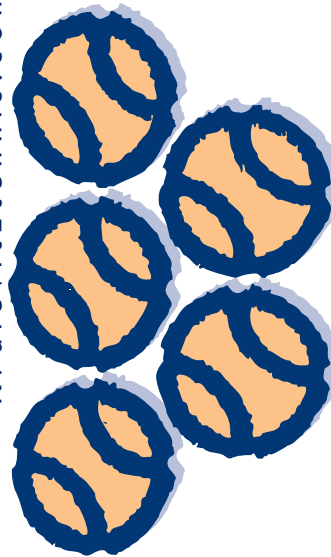

2018 will mark Steve's seventh year as Head Varsity Tennis Coach at Gilman School. In 2017, the Gilman Greyhounds won the MIAA championship, setting a league record for the first school ever to win four years in a row.

Steve has worked with professional players Jaime Yzaga (Peru), Vince Spadea (USA), Gilad Bloom (Israel) and Mexico's Alejandro Hernandez.

A Proven and Innovative Teaching System

Steve and his staff use an innovative combination of instruction, drills, match play and games to enhance the tennis learning process. This innovative system motivates students to achieve their own tennis goals.

Instruction for all levels (beginners to advanced) emphasizes mastering fundamental skills and stroke mechanics, tennis strategy and conditioning (both physical and mental).

Steve's enormous competitive talent is matched by his teaching ability. He offers beginning students quality fundamentals and advanced players unique insight into the strategy and psychology behind a winning tennis game.

Junior clinics are designed to be progressive. Players practice and compete within their group to advance to the next clinic level.

Acclaimed Professional Staff

Steve is a member of the Association of Tennis Professionals (ATP), and certified by the United States Professional Tennis Association (USPTA). His staff includes experienced veterans, collegiate team players, and professional instructors. All are attentive, enthusiastic, knowledgeable, and uniquely qualified to assist Steve.
